

COLOGIX WELCOMES GIGLINX TO CHANNEL PARTNER PROGRAM

Strategic partner to represent Cologix's North American, network neutral colocation platform

Denver, Colorado – July 31, 2012 – Cologix™, a network neutral interconnection and colocation company, announced today that they have partnered with Giglinx, a premier provider of wholesale bandwidth, CDN, and colocation services, to extend their reach to network neutral colocation customers.

“We form strategic partnerships with companies that augment and complement Cologix’s platform reach,” said Todd Coleman, Chief Operating Officer, Cologix. “Giglinx has an impressive track record in enabling their partners through flexible and customizable solutions and we look forward to the Cologix platform being a part of their offering.”

Giglinx provides high quality Tier 1 and Tier 2 IP Transit, CDN, and Colocation service solutions at wholesale pricing. Giglinx customers will have access to Cologix’s 11 North American network neutral data centers, including the major carrier hotels in each of the 5 markets they operate in including: Dallas, Minneapolis, Montreal, Toronto, and Vancouver.

“Many of our customer’s value connectivity choice as a primary avenue to reduce their total costs of ownership,” stated Marcus Mamolen, President, Giglinx. “Cologix services add an important option for our customers to realize that value.”
